

St. Stephen, South Carolina

Barbara Ann Jackson, 80, of St. Stephen, SC, a retired Administrative Division Head of the Supply Department at the Polaris Missile Base, died Thursday morning 01 October 2020 at a local nursing home. Her funeral will be 3 PM Sunday afternoon, 04 October 2020 in the Chapel of Dial-Murray Funeral Home. Interment will follow in Sunset Memorial Cemetery. The family will receive friends at the funeral home from 1:30 PM until the hour of service. Miss Jackson was born 06 September 1940 in St. Stephen, SC, a daughter of Ernest C. Jackson and Louise Wrenn Jackson. She was a graduate of St. Stephen High School, and was a very active member of the Christian Outreach Ministries where she was a former Sunday school teacher. Miss Jackson was also the former owner and operator of the B & B Hobby Shoppe. She enjoyed cross stitching and watching football. Miss Jackson loved Carolina football and traveling, especially to the mountains. Surviving are her cousins, Edna H. Orvin, Virginia H. Dangerfield, and Jackie Humbert, Sr., all of St. Stephen.