

Gary M. Trammell, Sr., a retired U.S. Navy Lieutenant (Junior Grade), went to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Saturday, 27 October 2007.

Gary was born 26 February 1942, in Fort Worth to Theodore Roosevelt and Vena Iona Trammell. He was a man who loved God, his country and family. He graduated from high school in 1960 and entered the Navy submarine service, where he served in the Polaris missile program, and retired from the Navy in 1980.

Afterwards, Gary went to work for General Dynamics later the same year and retired from Lockheed Martin as chief of management systems and procedures in 1998. During his two careers, Gary earned an associate degree in electronics engineering technology, a bachelor's degree in occupational education and a master's degree in industry and technology. He was an avid hunter, golfer and enjoyed traveling in their RV.

Retired U.S. Navy LT(JG) Gary M. Trammell will receive full military honors as he is laid to rest to begin his eternal patrol. His words: "Thank you Lord for a wonderful life, and thank you family and friends for being a part of it and sharing it with me. May God bless each of you as he did me. I hope to see you in heaven."
