

North Charleston, South Carolina

Marshall William Farber, 62, of North Charleston, the husband of Sharon Smith Farber, died on Sunday, February 29, 2004 at his residence. Born on August 18, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland, the son of Mary Ann Davis Farber. Mr. Farber participated in 22 submarine patrols, last on the USS Pulaski and retired with 25 years of service to his country in the United States Navy. After retiring, Marshall went to work for Westinghouse, at POMFLANT, in Goose Creek. He then began a career in car sales with Charleston Lincoln Mercury, now known as Altman Lincoln Mercury and Morris Nissan. Mr. Farber was a member of the Calvary Church of the Nazarene in Goose Creek. A devoted husband and loving father he will be deeply missed by his wife, Sharon, two sons: Chris Farber and his wife, To-Ahn of Summerville and Bryan Vincent and his wife, Cathy of Goose Creek; daughter: JoElle Vincent of Mt. Pleasant; brother: Dee Dee David Farber; four sisters: Mary Lou Murphy of Chiefland, Florida; Bridgette Farber and Heidi Crispens both of Baltimore, MD and Diane Murphy of Pennsylvania; granddaughter: Cybil Farber of Summerville. His brother, Brian Farber and sister, Marsha Narock, predeceased Mr. Farber. The family will receive friends from 5-7 PM on Friday, March 5, 2004 at MCALISTER-SMITH FUNERAL HOME, GOOSE CREEK CHAPEL, 100 S. Goose Creek Blvd., (Hwy 52), Goose Creek. The funeral service will be held at 10 AM on Saturday, March 6th in the chapel of McAlister-Smith Funeral Home, Goose Creek. Interment will be on Tuesday, March 9th in Arlington National Cemetery; Arlington, Virginia. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of Charleston, 3870 Leeds Avenue, Suite 101, North Charleston, SC 29405 or Pet Helpers, 1430 Folly Road, James Island, SC 29412. Online condolences may be sent to the Farber family via www.mcalister-smith.com.