James E. McNamara, passed on 10 July 2017 on vacation with his family in the Philippines. Jim was a dear friend and shipmate who served in the U. S. Navy as a Missile Technician 1st Class. We served together at the Polaris Missile Facility Atlantic (POMFLANT), Charleston, South Carolina in the mid 1970's. After his discharge he went to work there for Lockheed Missiles and Space Company, and I Civil Service. Later we both went to work at the Strategic Weapons Facility Atlantic (SWFLANT), Kings Bay, Georgia and subsequently retired.
